

2021 AYL A MENTOR AWARD

The Austin Young Lawyers Association will present two awards for outstanding mentor and outstanding alumnus. We would appreciate your help in recognizing the most deserving individuals for the following two awards.

AYLA Outstanding Mentor

Criteria: The individual must be an attorney who has consistently demonstrated a firm commitment to successfully mentoring young lawyers in the Austin area legal community. The award will be given annually by the Austin Young Lawyers Association ("AYLA") to a single recipient. Any member of the AYLA may nominate one or more individuals to be considered for the award. The AYLA Executive Committee will select three finalists from that group of nominees. The AYLA Board of Directors will select the award recipient from those three finalists. The Board may invite past winners of the award to participate in the discussion process and vote on the award recipient.
